

Great Variety of Music

For Fall

by Joseph A. Piccoli, WNTC AM & FM

As we enter the fall the music charts are quite varied. The most obvious change from the spring is the low number of disco songs that are popular. Although some of them have managed to become big hits (Bad Girls, Ring My Bell), the total number of disco songs that are very popular nationally has gone down. Taking the place of the disco songs are ones from a variety of artists.

The top ten of this week reflects this. The number one song is a country rocker and the number two and eight songs are from the so-called New Wave bands. Numbers seven, nine, and ten have the smooth soul touch while three through six are real rockers.

Outside the top ten are jazzman Herb Alpert, rockers Robert Palmer and Night, and disco artists Donna Summer and Patrick Hernandez. Big movers this week are "Pop Muzik" by M, "Dependin' On You," from the Doobie Brothers, and "Spooky," by the Atlanta Rhythm Section. Artists with followup hits on the chart are John Stewart with "Midnight Wind," the Knack's "Good Girls Don't," Wings' "Arrow Through Me," and Kansas, with "Reason To Be," a ballad in the tradition of "Dust in the Wind."

In coming weeks watch for new songs and albums by Foreigner, Steely Dan, Elton John, and the Rolling Stones.
